

TIM MAIDEN

CO-FOUNDER

Tim is widely regarded for his leadership experience in the banking, education and non-profit sectors. Tim Maiden has worked in the finance industry since 2001, participating in over a half billion dollars of capital transactions during his career. His experience includes sales leadership, community banking, middle-market lending, special assets committee, public finance and commercial real estate.

Tim Maiden currently serves as a SVP, Group Manager, at Comerica Bank and adjunct professor at University of North Texas at Dallas. At UNT Dallas, Tim offers advisory support for the School of Business and its Credit Analysis Program, which he helped establish to create a pathway for future business bankers. In addition, he provides board leadership to the Maiden Foundation, Goodwill Industries of Dallas, The Trust for Public Land of Texas, Dallas City Homes, Duncanville Outreach Ministry and others.

Tim graduated from Leadership Southwest in 2015 and Leadership Dallas in 2017. During this same time, Tim received the 2017 Chairman Award from the Duncanville Chamber of Commerce and was recognized by the Dallas Business Journal twice. In 2015, the Journal named him as a “40 Under 40” recipient, and in 2019 he became a Minority Business Leader honoree.

Tim received a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Liberal Arts degree from Texas Christian University. While at TCU, Tim Maiden lettered four years on the football team that was recognized as the Sun Bowl Champion in 1998, Western Athletic Conference Football Conference Champion in 1999, 2000. Tim would later receive a Master in Christian Education from Dallas Baptist University in 2008 and previously served as an adjunct lecturer. Tim Maiden has been featured in multiple magazines and a proud member of Kappa Alpha Psi, Inc.